

PRESS RELEASE

The New Vice-President of the ETDB, Mr. Sheryar Taj took his office on 26 October 2020.

Appointed by the Board of Directors on 7 April 2020, Mr. Sheryar Taj, the Vice-President of the ETDB took his office at the Headquarters of the Bank in İstanbul, on 26 October 2020.

Born in 1971, at Quetta, Pakistan, Mr. Sheryar Taj completed his schooling from Aitchison Collage Lahore in 1990. After completing his Bachelor Degree in Sciences at the Islamabad College in 1995, Mr. Taj received his first Master degree in “Public Administration and Equivalence Certificate in Business Administration” from Quaid-i- Azam University, Islamabad. From University of Manchester (UK) in 2006, Mr. Sheryar Taj received his second Master degree in “Education”.

Mr. Sheryar Taj started his professional career in 1996 as District Management Group (DMG) Officer and served in several districts of Balochistan including Quetta, Khuzdar, Bolan, Mastung and Barkhan.

From 2003 to 2020, Mr. Taj continued his professional life in different positions as:

- General Manager, National Commission for Human Development (NCHD) at Qila Saifullah and later as Provincial Director NCHD Balochistan.
- National Project Manager UNDP Project in Balochistan at Quetta
- Provincial Director Balochistan for USAID Project at Quetta
- Commercial Counsellor in Embassy of Pakistan at Tehran
- Secretary, Planning & Development Department, Government of Balochistan
- Director General, Gwadar Development Authority, Government of Balochistan
- Commissioner, Sibi Division, Government of Balochistan
- Principal Secretary to Chief Minister Balochistan, Quetta
- Secretary Energy and Power Department, Government of Balochistan

Since November 2020, Mr. Taj has joined the ECO Trade & Development Bank as its Vice President.

Mr. Taj is married with 3 children.